Despite Some Changes

President Seen Likely To Accept Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was pictured by Congressional sources today as willing to sign the House defense reorganization bill even if it passes without changes he advancing.

Senate to Sign

The Senate Armed Services Committee Friday approved a compromise bill that would give Eisenhower essentially what he wanted in its arrangement for streamlined command of unified forces.

House to Sign

The committee, hostile to changes that might infringe on individual services or on Congress' own prerogatives, turned down several Eisenhower requests for administrative changes.

Authorizing by two of three points, Eisenhower said in a letter to Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.), "I hope this language will be suitably adjusted on the House floor."

Some Suspense

In the first reaction from the Pentagon, Secretary of Defense McElroy echoed the President's comment, saying that while the bill "seems to have accomplished most of the President's major objectives, certain language will, in our opinion, impair efficient administration."

One of the points in question, committee members said, involves a provision containing to give Congress final decision, without possibility of a presidential veto, in controversial changes in functions of any service. The other issue is language specifying that the secretary of defense's authority over the services shall be exercised through their own secretaries.

Republicans joined Democrats on the committee in unanimously approving the bill, which now goes to the House for action, perhaps within two weeks.

Miss Cusack 'Still Critical'

The condition of Mary Elizabeth Cusack, 18, of 199 Main Street, who suffered severe head injuries early Thursday morning when a car she was driving struck two utility poles on Albany Avenue, was reported "still critical" at Albany Hospital today. She was taken first to Kingston Hospital and transferred to Albany for treatment of severe head injuries, a fracture and lacerations of the left leg.

Dinner to Honor Veteran Esopus Fireman Leader

A testimonial dinner honoring Fire Chief Harry Maines of Esopus Fire Department will be held Saturday, May 24, at 7 p.m. at Esopus Firehouse. The firm of Coverdale and Colpitts will conduct the surveys. Questions will be asked concerning starting points and destinations, the number of trips made a week, plus other questions pertaining to trips to and from work.

Honorary Title

The company is honoring Chief Maines with an honorary life membership.

The board of fire commissioners, the fire department and the entire Esopus Fire District including the communities of West Park, Esopus and Ulster Park, point with pride and admiration to the splendid job Chief Maines has rendered for 18 consecutive years. His personal sacrifices and untiring efforts in the fireman's affairs exemplifies the service he has voluntarily accomplished to this community.

In addition to the service to his community, he has served in various capacities in the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

An employee of Hercules Powder Company, Port Ewen for 29 years, he works in the maintenance department and serves as deputy fire chief of the plant's fire department.

Native of Connelly

Born in Connelly, he has been a life-long resident of the Town of Esopus and presently lives with his wife, the former Hazel Mott at their home in Esopus.

Notables expected to attend the testimonial include former Kingston Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy, president of Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association; Kingston Fire Chief James Brett; Deputy Fire Chief

Tubby Urges State Obtain Expert Advice on Forests

SCHROON LAKE, N. Y. (AP) — Publisher Roger Tubby urged the conservation commissioners today to seek professional advice on forest-preserve policy.

Tubby and Commissioner Sharon J. Maus have been at odds over a Tubby proposal that the forest preserve be opened to limited lumbering operations.

Tubby, co-publisher of the Adirondack Enterprise, suggested at a meeting of the Adirondack Conservation Council that advice on policy matters be sought from Robert Moses, chairman of the State Parks Council, Lithgow Osborne, former conservation commissioner, state and federal commissioners and leaders in recreation and forest management.

The newspaper executive also proposed that Maus conduct newspaper, radio and television representatives on a tour of the Adirondacks and Catskills so that the public could be informed on "just what the situation is."

Tubby has said that limited lumber operations would improve the condition of the forest preserves and its game and also result in better recreational facilities.

Maus has rejected the proposal and called instead for new emphasis on the constitutional mandate that the forest preserve be kept "forever wild."

At the opening session Friday night of the Conservation Council's two-day second annual convention, Prof. James E. Davis of the State College of Forestry at Syracuse University urged relaxation of curbs on the use of forest-preserve land.

He suggested that the state appropriate funds for studies of land use and administrative policies affecting the 2½ million acres of forest in the Adirondack and Catskill preserve.

This approach, he said, could lead to a state land policy "that will preserve the best features of the public forest domain and meet the needs of both a recreation-minded public and the people who reside and make a living in the state parks."

Sen. Wheeler Milne, chairman of the joint Legislative Committee on Natural Resources, said in an interview that the believed "the only logical answer to the tangled forest-preserve problem is a zoning program such as has been worked out in the national parks."

The Canastota Republican said such zoning would meet the demand for multiple use of the forest preserve.

About 100 representatives of fish and game clubs throughout the Adirondacks are attending the Conservation Council meeting.

France Awaits DeGaulle's Move

General Is To Speak On Monday

Tough Regime Is Plan of Premier

PARIS (AP) — Premier Pierre Mendès-France and his new emergency powers today to organize a tough police regime against a possible August 11 strike to oust Gen. Charles de Gaulle in power.

Gen. de Gaulle, who broke a five-year silence Thursday to say he stood ready to assume "the government of the republic," announced he would hold a news conference Monday.

Frenchmen Faced

The World War II resistance leader's original statement was so cryptic that Frenchmen wouldn't know whether he wanted power handed to him legally or was willing to take over in a coup.

The second possibility—coming in as a man on horseback to establish something that might come close to a military dictatorship—was the most common interpretation although a close associate of de Gaulle said he would never accept power illegally.

Weekend of Suspense

The announcement today from de Gaulle's Paris office left the nation facing a weekend of suspense. The general remained at his rural home in eastern France until Sunday.

PARIS (AP) — Premier Pierre Mendès-France used his new emergency powers today to organize a tough police regime to oppose any right of those to seize power in France.

Some 25,000 police and special security troops patrolled Paris while special agents fanned out across France to arrest persons suspected of plotting to seize Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power. Two air force generals were among those reported arrested.

But while Mendès-France organized his four-day-old government's hold on continental France, the military-civilian rightists in Algiers who seized control of that North African territory Tuesday remained in undisputed control.

Considerate Statement

An all-Algeria insurrection committee met secretly in Algiers Friday night to consider the statement in which Mendès-France said he would go to the Algerian government to discuss the situation in the Middle East and the Frenchmen's cold war to the boiling point.

There are fears the approach of Mendès-France against Christian, Moslem and Jewish leaders, Christian against Christian and the Moslem Jews will lead to civil strife and civil war.

Situation in Algeria

There also is the Middle East and west to organize Frenchmen's battle with Moslems, pro-Moslem supporters of the new Moslem government fight in Westerners who would like to bring the government down.

Your Life And Mine

By CLYDE HERBERT SNELL
THE HEART'S INCOME

Most of us when we think of riches see the dollar sign flash before our eyes. We have visions of stacks and stacks of greenbacks; houses, land, expensive cars — all the things that money can buy. The children in the famous Christmas poem had visions of sugar plums dancing in their heads while good old St. Nick was paying his mystic visit to fill the stockings of the slumbering darlings with luscious things to eat. And whenever the word "rich" is mentioned, or comes trooping into our minds of its own accord, we have visions of scads and scads of money; with all of the luxurious things in evidence that only a fabulous access to unnumbered dollars could provide.

Oscar Wilde once defined a cynic as a person who sees the price of everything and the value of nothing. What do dollars have to do with the real values in life? Of course no one in his right mind would deny that money is handy to make change with, as we sometimes say. We find ourselves in a world where it would be almost impossible to get along without at least a little of it. But the fact should not be overlooked that some of the poorest people in the world are those with the biggest incomes. And some of the richest people in the world have very little of this world's goods. Albert Schweitzer, for example, scorned worldly fame and riches to go out into a needy section of Africa and establish a hospital to serve the needs of human beings. One of the conditions which determined his choice, he tells us, was that he must find some place to serve folks who were in no position to pay him, in money, for his services. Many a "poor" man, with all kinds of money, wishes he had Schweitzer's rich life of inner satisfaction. Do you think a man like Albert Schweitzer, now along in years, ever wishes he had spurned a life of selfless service to human beings for one whose guiding interest was fame and gold? Fame and gold are so often signs of poverty; while the wisdom to live thoughtfully and helpfully is a sign of real riches.

The worst poverty in this world is the kind we inflict upon ourselves by living for ourselves. God has made us so that selfishness and happiness cannot live in the same heart. There never has been a life that could play host to those two at the same time. We can live selfishly if we will; but we cannot find joy in doing it. There is no pilfering upon the bank of heaven. Thieving fingers never reach in and filch the treasures that are reserved for the faithful. A selfish man never gets his hands on a selfless man's prize; unless, in some moment of insight and dedication, he deserts his selfish ways.

Not everyone, to be sure, can be an Albert Schweitzer. But God has seen to it that enough of the golden opportunities for service to our fellow-men are available daily, even to the least of us, to provide our hearts with a good steady income of those priceless inner riches.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 355 East Braddock Avenue, will be celebrating a double anniversary Sunday, May 25. The church was dedicated 30 years ago under the direction of the first pastor, the Rev. Carle A. Romoser. The present pastor, the Rev. Olney E. Cook, who took charge of the congregation is celebrating the 30th anniversary of his ordination, having been ordained at Johnstown, N. Y., May 9, 1928.

His first pastorate was in Middleburgh, going there after graduation from Wittenberg College and Hamma Divinity School in Springfield, O. Later, he served churches in Ellenville, Chatham and Woodstock.

There will be two services May 25. At the 10:45 a. m. service, the Rev. Paul C. Noted Protestant To Address Israel Anniversary Fete

REV. JOHN S. GRAUEL

A noted Protestant minister, the Rev. John Stanley Grauel, expert on Middle East affairs, will be the guest speaker at the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the State of Israel Monday at 8:30 p. m. at Congregation Ahavath Israel, Wurts and Spring Streets.

The public is invited to the program under the auspices of the Kingston Jewish Community Council.

Traveler to Israel

The Rev. Mr. Grauel, a frequent traveler to Israel, Europe and North Africa, began his career in the Protestant ministry and served several parishes in New England.

He subsequently became interested in the postwar problems of the surviving Jews in Europe. The Rev. Mr. Grauel helped to organize and later was named executive director of the American Christian Palestine Committee in Philadelphia, an organization which befriended homeless Jewish victims of Nazi brutality. He enlisted in the forces of Haganah, the underground military service of pre-Israel Palestine.

Joined Exodus Crew

In 1947, the Rev. Mr. Grauel voluntarily joined the crew of "Exodus 1947," a vessel which set out from Europe with 4,500 Jewish displaced persons from the German concentration camps, all of whom were seeking a haven in Palestine. The ship was overtaken by units of the British Navy and its passengers were removed to prison ships and returned to Germany. He submitted a graphic report to the United Nations Special Committee on Palestine, telling of the British naval attack on the Exodus and the sufferings of the passengers. This report was a key factor in the series of events which brought about the United Nations resolution for the partition of Palestine.

Ernest Decker, assistant custodian at the school, who helped in preparing the trees for planting, noted that some of the trees which now grace the entrance to the school premises were planted during his school days some 50 years ago.

It is planned eventually as the trees mature they will be transplanted and placed in various spots on the school premises.

Committee Seeks Name Indicating Purpose Plainly

One committee in the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce is seeking a change in its name that will more clearly describe its function.

It is the Industrial Procurement Committee whose aim is to promote job opportunities and help improve local economic conditions.

Chairman John H. Haulenbeck announced at this week's meeting that a change in the name was felt necessary, and added that suggestions would be welcome.

During the session, which was held Wednesday, a request was made of the State Department of Commerce to make a survey of economic resources in the Kingston area. It will be presented to the department by the regional director, W. Dale Swartzmiller, who attended the meeting.

Charles Adler, head of the industrial department of Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, stressed the importance of injecting a feeling of real welcome to management and employees of firms in endeavoring to get them to move to the area.

Industries are not inclined to locate where they feel they are not sincerely welcome, he said.

The possibility of preparing an attractive brochure to promote the development of the Kingston area is also being considered. The Chamber board of directors approved funds to prepare a proposed draft or design of the brochure.

Katrine School Has Arbor Rites

Arbor Day was observed at Lake Katrine School Monday, May 12, when pupils of the fifth and sixth grades of the school under direction of Peter Dyshuk and Arthur Hartigan planted approximately 1,000 Norway spruce trees. The seedlings were obtained from the Department of Conservation, State of New York, Nursery at Saratoga Springs.

The seedlings were temporarily planted on lands of the school district near the Esopus creek.

Participating in the planting were 42 boys and girls who set out the trees in observance of Arbor Day. Edward R. Crosby, principal of the school, recommended Mr. Dyshuk for his initiative in contacting the Department of Conservation and carrying out the project.

Ernest Decker, assistant custodian at the school, who helped in preparing the trees for planting, noted that some of the trees which now grace the entrance to the school premises were planted during his school days some 50 years ago.

It is planned eventually as the trees mature they will be transplanted and placed in various spots on the school premises.

Army Engineers Favor Bridge to Continue Route 29

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Dairy farmers' milk receipts in New York State are running at a rate that is $1,100-a-year higher than 1957's, the Republican state chairman said today.

"For the first four months of this year," Chairman L. Judson Morhouse said, "the average monthly income per dairy farm is $94.87 higher than during the same period last year."

Morhouse said the increase was largely due to the federal-state milk-marketing order that went into effect last August. It brought northern New Jersey and much of Upstate New York under the metropolitan New York marketing order.

Morhouse also said that Democratic Gov. Harriman had done nothing for dairy farmers and had no constructive programs to help them.

The bridge will carry Route 29 over the river from Schuylerville, Saratoga County, to Easton, Washington County.

The State Public Works Department began to build the bridge last August. Federal law requires that anyone building a bridge over navigable waters obtain the Corps of Engineers' approval. The state filed its application April 3.

The Albany suboffice said Friday it would recommend approval of the state's plan to its New York City office, which probably will pass the recommendation on to headquarters.

A spokesman said the situation was "a little unusual."

POLIO CLINICS START MAY 20

The third series of free polio clinics will be held throughout the county beginning May 20 when those from six months of age through 19 years will be eligible to receive second and third injections.

The free clinics are made possible through funds provided by the Ulster County Board of Supervisors for purchase of Salk polio vaccine and clinic supplies. Ulster County Department of Health nurses will organize, equip and staff the clinics with the aid of other volunteers. The clinic program is aimed at providing polio vaccine without cost for children who otherwise could not afford this protection. In 1957 a total of 3,013 children received first or second "shots" at these clinics.

In the past 10 years great strides have been made with the result that last year there were no polio epidemics in the United States. To the Salk vaccine and the 65 million Americans who have been vaccinated goes the credit.

But with three out of seven Americans still unvaccinated, polio epidemics can happen again. For the National Foundation warns that paralytic polio cannot be really wiped out until every person under 40 has had his full series of Salk vaccine "shots."

If you are one of those eligible for second or third "shots" at the forthcoming clinics, don't take a chance. Arrange now to get your vaccination.

'FAIR LADY' TRIUMPHS

In a manner of speaking, "My Fair Lady" has gone home. That great American musical with a highly successful New York run to its credit has leaped the ocean and landed in the city of its setting—London.

Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews shared the lead in the opening at the Theatre Royal in Drury Lane as they had shared it for months at the Mark Hellinger Theater on Broadway. There was considerable apprehension among the partisans of "My Fair Lady" in this country lest sophisticated Londoners look down their noses at this musical adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion." Some thought that maybe the ghost of old G. B. S. might stride up to see for himself.

But London was taken by storm. At least one major critic described the opening night as a triumph for both the musical and the American stage. Londoners who had been fed up with the American export of second rate television and movies forgot their anti-Americanism and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

BEAUTY AND WONDERS

Somewhat more than a third of the total population of the United States, statistically speaking, will visit the scores of national parks scattered throughout the nation and its territories this year. Conrad L. Wirth, director of the National Park Service, estimates that 60 million people will see one or more of the parks.

That figure is impressive. Even more impressive is the realization that wise planning and careful nurture, often in the face of greedy interests that would have had it otherwise, have preserved so many tracts of scenic beauty and wonders for the public.

The United States occupies a magnificent piece of this old earth. Despite the burgeoning of a great and complex society, much of that magnificence may still be seen by our generation. It is a pleasant thought to mull over.

SIGN POSTS

In every city and town, and every state, there are men who plan where to place directional road signs. Some do a good job, and some do not.

Generally the big failings are that the signs aren't big enough and plain enough, and are placed too close to the turns. When they're too close, drivers don't realize which

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE PLANT GROWS OLD

Those who are surprised at Soviet Russia's advance in heavy industry overlook the fact that they have an entirely new plant. They can take advantage of every improvement made anywhere in the world. Our plant in the heavy industries, particularly in steel, is comparatively old, which could mean about 20 years old. This is not a problem of managerial competence; it is one of taxation and the unwillingness of the government to recognize that a plant erected in 1939 can only be replaced in 1958 at about two and a half times its original cost or more.

No matter how high the earnings of an industry may be, it can be short of money for replacements and modernization, unless the tax laws and the methods of collecting taxes recognize that the purpose of a depreciation reserve is to modernize plant and equipment so that the operation is always efficient and competitive.

Father William T. Hogan, professor of economics at Fordham University, who has made a special study of this subject, makes the point that while the purchasing power of the dollar in 1956 was just half of its 1939 value (it has fallen lower since), the construction dollar has fallen to less than 40 per cent of its top 1939 value. . . . Thus, it takes two and one-half dollars today to build what one dollar would build in 1939 and in 1940. This presents a serious problem in the replacement of worn-out facilities, for generally speaking, the equipment installed in 1939 at the cost of 1 million dollars could not be replaced today for less than 2½ million dollars, yet the depreciation funds set aside for this replacement amount only to the original cost, or 1 million dollars. Thus an additional 1 million and a half is necessary if equipment is to be replaced and operations maintained.

This is not only impractical from the standpoint of the individual companies; it is impractical from the standpoint of national interest. It is responsible for out-pricing many American commodities even in home markets. While there are some who believe that the day is not distant when steel will be replaced by lighter metals, that day is not yet, and what applies to steel, in this matter, applies universally to everything. It applies to all plants and equipment that have to be written off in a period of 20 or 30 years.

This situation was somewhat modified by the Second Revenue Act of 1940 which permitted a five-year write-off for war plants. Many of these plants were for special purposes anyhow and had to be reconverted as soon as the war was over. As regards equipment, some machine tools are useful only for particular tasks. Under our tax laws, it grows increasingly difficult to maintain a modern, efficient plant, capable of competitive performance with the newest and best plants in the world.

Father Hogan stated the case of the steel industry clearly and succinctly in a statement before the House Ways and Means Committee on January 15, 1958:

"Much of the equipment in the steel industry is large, expensive and long-lived; consequently, the industry has been particularly hard hit by the post-war inflation and the lack of adequate depreciation funds for the replacement of plant.

The average life of steel mill equipment is 20 to 25 years. Thus, at the present time, the industry finds it necessary to replace assets acquired in the middle and early 1930's. The original investment in this equipment, and consequently, the depreciation accrual amounts to less than one-half their present replacement cost. The problem is further aggravated by the sheer size of investment required to produce iron and steel. At present the industry has 13 billion dollars worth of fixed assets in operation, and a substantial portion of these must be replaced every year."

No real solution has been offered for this problem, which does not include further inflationary activities. What built these and all American industries was the retention of earnings. Simply stated this means that a man or a corporation retained earnings to improve the business. That is impossible today because of taxes.

It was never intended that taxes should be used to make our plants old and inefficient so that they ceased to be competitive with newer and better plants often built abroad because of American economic or military aid.

If Men Are Smart, They'll Bow Out of These Tasks

Never go yourself, men, if you can send your wife on any of these errands:

To get the store that sold you a "lemon" to stand behind the product. Few men have the persistence it takes to keep after a business firm until whoever is in charge of complaints decides that until something is done about the matter, nobody will get any peace.

To buy something on sale. A man is too easily persuaded to buy something better, or to give up because he hates crowds. But if a woman goes after a bargain, chances are she'll get it.

To ask for information about anything. Men, usually, are too afraid of showing their ignorance to ask enough questions, but a woman doesn't mind admitting that she doesn't know something and isn't afraid to ask.

To return merchandise. A man is unhappy if he has to return anything since a sale to him is a final piece of business. But women are used to changing their minds and think they have a perfect right to. So returning something is no problem for a woman.

HELL'S BALK, SHELL'S WALK

To shop for anything where prices vary. A woman will walk the taps right off her shoe heels to compare prices, whereas a man's feet get tired mighty easy when he is shopping.

To buy anything where color is important. A woman knows the subtle differences in shades, but a man, unless he is an artist or artistically inclined, is likely to think that blue is blue and green is green.

To see about getting something done that has to be done at a certain time. If it has to be done by the 20th a man naively says that is the deadline, and is outraged when it isn't ready until the 25th.

But a woman just moves up the date to the 15th and expects it to be done by the 20th—which it is, with no fuss and no hard feelings.

"Why do you have to carry the bricks yourself?" one of the Russians asked. "In Russia we have machines that do that."

"We do it because they pay us $2.50 an hour," a worker answered.

"Well, what can you buy with those wages?" the Russian asked.

The worker dropped his bricks and escorted the Russian to a parking lot where he pointed to a brand new Lincoln Capri.

One of the gadgets that fascinates everyone is an elaborate looking thermometer under the steering wheel which registers both the inside and outside temperatures.

The machines in the men's washrooms get an average of three times as much business as those in ladies' washrooms. But where he has them spotted in Georgetown, the town's egghead, high-level type hangout, the ratio is five to one.

ROSENDALE Cleanup Week Starts

MAY 19 IN VILLAGE

ROSENDALE—At a recent meeting of the Woman's Club of Rosendale, it was announced that the week beginning May 19 would be designated as "Cleanup Week" in Rosendale. The local fire company has requested people to use caution when burning leaves or rubbish in the village.

A donation of several tables and chairs was made by the club to the Rosendale Library. In order to help defray the cost of the furniture, a spring dance will be held Saturday, June 14, at Spindler's Resort. Tickets are now on sale, and those interested should contact Mrs. Richard Weir, Tillson.

Beirut Is Calm As Two Leaders Take Offensive

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—President Camille Chamoun seized the offensive today in the clash with opposition forces seeking to overthrow his pro-Western government.

Chamoun and his premier, Sami Sohl, appealing to the people to end the upheaval, said the government is resolutely defending Lebanon's independence from outside forces. As if to underline their words, this capital was the calmest it has been in a week.

The two charged once more that opposition leaders who launched a wave of strikes and death dealing riots a week ago were working to make Lebanon another province of President Nasser's United Arab Republic.

The government's campaign, started with radio broadcasts Friday night and splashed in the press this morning, was felt instantly in Beirut. Unless diehard opposition leaders have something up their sleeves, Chamoun's campaign to restore order seemed headed toward success.

Although there still was tension more automobile traffic appeared on the streets and more shops opened for business.

Chamoun and his government still have a long way to go before bringing this riot torn nation back to normal. But feverish political negotiations going on between the opposing factions perhaps will do this sooner than could be expected under ordinary circumstances.

Two leaders of the warring, antigovernment Druze tribesmen were reported ready to sit down to peace talks. Parliament was summoned for a meeting and officials hoped the cooling off would extend into the mountains.

Electricity Use Up 142 Per Cent On Nation's Farms

WASHINGTON (AP)—The average electrified farm has stepped up its use of power by 142 percent in the past 10 years.

Reporting the results of a survey today, the Agriculture Department's Marketing Service said the average farm user consumed 414 kilowatt hours of electricity monthly in 1957 compared with 171 hours in 1947.

The service said increased application of electricity to farm and home tasks accounted for the increase.

While the farmer's use of electricity went up 142 percent in the 10-year span, his average monthly bill went up only 91 percent. The average cost per kilowatt hour declined 21 percent from 3.2 cents to 2.54 cents.

The reduction per kilowatt hour was attributed primarily to the "step-down" rate structure which generally provides for declines in rates as more power is consumed.

They appeared in the rural general store of Mrs. Gladys Truman, 57, wearing handkerchiefs across their faces and brandishing a .22 caliber rifle. They demanded she put money in a paper bag. Mrs. Truman reached under the counter and stuffed the bag full. The bandits fled with their loot—three or four dozen shoe laces.

Urge to Return To Birthplace Keeps Seal Moving

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Aquarium got more of the same old runaround today from a young harp seal determined to go places.

"Still going," the Coney Island Aquarium said of its travel-minded young seal, named Number One.

However Number One, loaded with tranquilizers, did get a little nap of about three and a half hours yesterday. He also took a bit more nourishment than previously.

But the rest and food apparently did little more than renew his urge to get going again.

Since Sunday the two-month-old seal has been circling the aquarium's 150-foot tank like a junior grade satellite. Officials think its an urge of nature compelling him to return to the place where he was born off the eastern coast of Canada. He has lost 5 of his 37 pounds.

Number One won't rest or eat as long as he's in the tank, and the aquarium is fearful he'll swim himself to death. So attendants have been taking him out of the water from time to time to force food, vitamins and tranquilizers down his craw.

The aquarium figured he might not give up his travel plans for weeks—the time it would take him to swim from here to Canada.

The aquarium acquired six of the young harp seals, which derive their name from the fact that they develop a harp pattern on their bodies at maturity. They are said to be the only ones in captivity.

So far the five others are content to take it easy.

Two Students Killed

State police identified the dead as: Richard P. McGee, 18, of Stamford, Conn., a student at St. Michael's College, Winooski, and Miss Judy Laws, of Nutley, N. J., a student at the University of Vermont.

Injured and taken to Porter Hospital in Middlebury were: Nancy E. Tressel, of Baldwin, N. Y., and Jon F. Hemaway of Orleans, Vt., both students at the University of Vermont.

Freed Free on Bail

BOSTON (AP)—New York disc jockey Alan Freed was free in $2,500 bail today after pleading innocent in Suffolk Superior Court Friday to charges stemming from riots that followed a rock 'n' roll music session May 3 at Boston.

Weedon, his attorney, said Powell, who is being denied Democratic party support for renomination, pleaded innocent in Federal District Court Friday to income tax evasion charges. He was indicted May 8.

He challenged New York Democratic leaders in a speech prepared for a Harlem rally marking the fourth anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision against school segregation.

"We need to serve notice to the people of this city that we are not going to tolerate any group of people sitting outside of our community dictating to us who our candidates shall be within our community," Powell said.

"How dare the young Democrats of New York, an all-white organization with not more than three nonwhite members, sit in judgment downtown and tell us, the 400,000 people of Harlem, who our congressman should be."

Tammany chief Carmine Depo said after a Thursday meeting of Harlem Democratic leaders that Powell would be denied the party's backing in his bid for another two-year term in Congress. They gave as their reason his support of President Eisenhower in the 1956 election.

The Plattekill Town Board met Wednesday evening at the town building in Modena with Supervisor W. Howard Simpson of Clintondale presiding and all members present.

It was announced that Charles Franklin is acting Civil Defense Director of the Town of Plattekill, instead of Onufrey Orlowski who had accepted the position previously, but has resigned the office.

The next meeting of the Board will be Wednesday evening, June 11, at the town building in Modena.

Freed was indicted by the grand jury on charges of inciting a riot and inciting unlawful destruction of real and personal property. Police reported that 15 persons were assaulted after "The Big Beat" show.

Snake Proves Real

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—The cops were skeptical when Don Brown called to say he had a snake in his cupboard. But the policeman sent to the house was not skeptical. He described it as yellow, about 4 to 5 feet long, species unknown. The two men killed it with a shovel.

U. S. Employees Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of federal employees has increased by about 233,000 in the last decade.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) said this today in a report from his committee on reduction of non-essential federal spending. Byrd said the total estimated for the fiscal year starting July 1 is 2,326,327.

He said the federal payroll went up from 6½ billion dollars to $1,700,000,000 in the same 10-year period.

Byrd said the bulk of the increase in civilian employment came in the military agencies which added 223,644 employees during the decade. Civilian agencies showed an increase of 69,462.

Modena

MODENA—Deadline for reservations for the supper to be served Wednesday, May 21 at Hasbrouck Memorial Hall from 5:30 to 7 p.m. is Sunday. The supper will be sponsored by the official board of the church.

The free clinics are made possible through funds provided by the Ulster County Board of Supervisors for purchase of Salk polio vaccine and clinic supplies. As in 1957, Ulster County physicians have offered their time and services without remuneration and there will be no charge for injections. The public health nurses of the Ulster County Department of Health will organize, equip and staff the clinics, with the aid of other local nurses and volunteers. The latter will help in keeping necessary records.

The Ulster County clinic program is aimed at providing polio vaccine without cost for children who otherwise could not afford it. This important and highly effective protection. In 1957 a total of 3,013 children received first or second "shots" at these clinics.

This group will be eligible for second or third shots at the forthcoming clinics.

For Exterior Paints

For exterior paint jobs, earth pigments generally are more permanent than chemical colors and for surfaces exposed to weather and sunlight. Tinted paint is more durable than white. The major earth pigments are ochre, the siennas, umbers, red iron oxides and "earth" browns and blacks.

Women Invade Men's Workshop

One of man's last retreats in the home—his workshop—is being invaded by the ladies. The reason: Some of today's portable electric tools are gifts for their husbands to operate that it's fun for the girls to use them.

In fact, home tool specialists report that women shopping for tools as gifts for their husbands often make their selection with the idea of picking a tool they can use themselves.

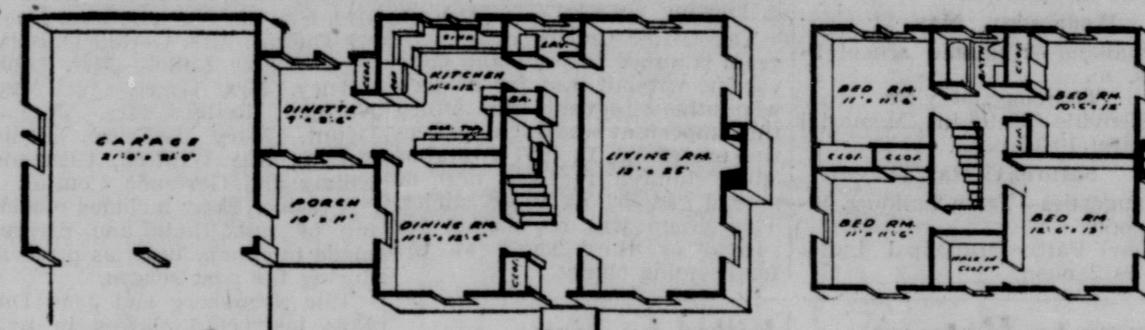

So with the woman as well as the man of the house in mind, a leading manufacturer has developed an unusual new speed drill that weighs only 4 pounds, is less than 9 inches long overall, and can be used not only as a drill but as a jigsaw, sander, and polisher!

Refinishing old furniture or smoothing and completing unfinished furniture long have appealed to many women. Now they're easily done, with no muscle-work, with an electric tool. Even do-it-yourself projects, such as making decorative wooden animals for display in the yard, present no problem to the gals—although they usually want some of hubby's advice before starting the job to be sure they use the electric jigsaw attachment to the utmost advantage.

A versatile tool such as the four-in-one speed drill can be used for sanding down rough spots in wall refinishing, too, or for polishing the family automobile if desired.

Tile-Setting Hints

A gallon of adhesive is sufficient for setting from 45 to 50 square feet of tile. Be certain that all surfaces are dry, sound, plumb and free of old materials which might not adhere properly to the adhesive.

The 'Ann'... Is Spacious And Attractive

Rooms Seven
Bedrooms Four
Closets Eight
Dimensions 66' x 26'
Cubage:

House 23,200 ft.
Garage 5,800 ft.

Offered today by Home of the Week Plan Service, the "Ann" is an attractively designed, substantial two-story house that offers the splendor, room and comfort of large, well planned rooms.

The traditional outside appearance is enhanced by the unique roof line, brick chimney and porch area between garage and kitchen. The house with garage has measurements of 66' x 26' so that you can see that a substantial lot is also required for those who choose the "Ann" as their home. Cubage of the house with garage is 29,000 feet.

Seven or Eight Rooms

Technically this is considered a seven room home with four bedrooms on the upper floor, living room, dining room and kitchen on the first floor. But the strategically located dinette which could also be a family room, TV room or sewing room gives the advantages of eight full rooms.

From the minute that you step into the entry hall, you'll appreciate the clean, practical layout of the "Ann". This main hallway has entrances into the living room, dining room and kitchen to limit traffic through these rooms. There is also a large clothes closet located in the entranceway.

The living room is 13' x 25', offers lots of wall space for outstanding decorating possibilities and as you can see, runs the complete depth of the house. There is a large fireplace flanked by two windows with opportunities for bookcases or knick knack shelves.

Two Lavatories

In addition to the full size bathroom on the second floor, there is a lavette located directly off the main hallway on the first floor near the kitchen. This will cut down on the trips up and down stairs and will be particularly useful during the early morning rush to get dressed and off for work or school.

Each of the bedrooms has a large double closet and in ad-

Color Adds Pleasure

Life outdoors can be especially pleasant when you have aids like the lovely rainbow-hued enamels that are now available to brighten things up. When you transform your garden furniture with them, you'll find that the whole family will take new interest in outdoor projects. Meals eaten under the sky will seem more appetizing. Minor household chores performed under the branches of a tree seem less troublesome.

Try Spray Painting Odd Furniture

Sometimes it's a temptation to toss out an odd piece of furniture just because it doesn't match anything else, even if it does happen to fit a particular need. Instead, it might be a good idea to play it up with an unusual finish.

Since the piece of furniture matches nothing anyway, the finish could be a startling color-wise, to change it from the item that you try to ignore to a bright bit of decoration.

Spray painting is wonderful for this, and it's so easy to do with the new push-button cans that hold small quantities of paint. Be daring about color twice over—choose two briskly contrasting shades and turn out a two-tone finish.

Apply the first coat evenly and all over the furniture, then keep your distance from it when you spray the second color so the effect is an eye-catching spatter. Consider the same idea for items other than furniture—perhaps for picture frames, an old tray, a trinket box or plant container.

Remove Splashes

Paint splashes can be removed from windows and mirrors by washing with turpentine or ammonia or hot vinegar.

Wood Windows Offer Advantages To Home Builder

Ask most any builder why he installs wood windows in his homes and he's likely to come up with reasons like this:

Ponderosa pine, the wood used for most high quality windows, doesn't conduct heat. As a natural insulator, it eliminates condensation on sash and frames.

Wood does not rust and is not corroded by salt air or chemical fumes.

Most windows of ponderosa pine come in units, with weatherstripping installed and frame and sash fitted together at the factory. This reduces labor costs to the builder and assures easy operation.

New buildings settle slowly, often throwing windows and doors out of line. Windows of ponderosa pine can be readily adjusted to operate smoothly.

Wood takes any decorative finish, paint or stain, and can be redecorated when color schemes are changed, inside and out.

Veterans' Rights, Benefits Listed

Howard C. Shurter, county director of Veteran's Service Agency, and Peter B. Riley, state veteran counselor, NYS Division of Veteran's Affairs, submit another in a series of articles on rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and other dependents.

Armed Forces — Military or naval records may be corrected when such action is necessary to eliminate an error or remove an injustice. Boards of civilian personnel have been established to correct military or naval records. These boards may, for example, grant relief in the case of a service person who was dishonorably discharged as the result of a general court martial. Applications for correction of military or naval records must be filed before October 25, 1961 or within three years of discovery of the alleged error or injustice whichever is the later. In the event a military or naval record is corrected, it may entitle the applicant to benefits to which he is now ineligible because of the character of his discharge. This Division will assist veterans in completing applications for the correction of such records.

Legislation — A bill to increase pensions to Spanish-American War widows has been passed by the U. S. Senate. The bill now goes to a joint Senate-House Conference Committee and will go from there to the President for consideration. The bill would increase monthly pension payments to $65 from $54 for widows of the Spanish-American War, the Boxer Rebellion, the Philippine Insurrection, the Civil and Indian Wars. The measure in its present form would include widows of Confederate veterans for the first time. Widows who were married to a veteran during the time he was in the armed service would have their pensions increased to $75 a month. The legislation also would include proportionate increases for children. There are currently about 84,000 Spanish War widows receiving VA pensions.

Scholarships — May 22, 1958 is the last date to apply for the 1958 series of the Regents War Service Scholarships. The competitive test for the scholarships will be held on June 7. The current series is limited to veterans of the Korean conflict that is, to veterans of the U. S. armed forces who served between June 24, 1950 and July 1, 1955. There are 300 scholarships available which pay up to $350 a year for tuition and fees for a maximum of four years for full or part-time study, graduate or undergraduate, day or evening, in any recognized college, business, vocational or technical school located in New York State. PO Department Awarded Fourth Safety Citation

Postmaster General Arthur B. Summerfield has been advised today that the Post Office Department for the fourth consecutive year was given the National Safety Council's citation award "for out-standing contributions" to the nation's traffic safety in 1957.

The Safety Council, in a telegram from G. C. Stewart, executive vice president, has notified the Department that it is one of 12 organizations over the nation winning the coveted honor in 1957.

The department was informed that this is the first time any organization has won the award four times in a row. Formal presentation ceremonies for the award have not yet been scheduled, and will be announced later.

The Post Office Department's comprehensive safety and traffic accident program was initiated in 1954. Some of the achievements in 1957 which won recognition of the Safety Council, in making this newest presentation, were as follows:

- An excellent accident and casualty rate in 884,069,485 miles driven in 1957 by postal vehicles, with a total of 18,813 accidents, or 2.13 accidents for every 100,000 miles driven, with a casualty rate of .06 for each 100,000 miles.

- Traffic safety promotion in 37,000 postal field installations in every major community in the nation.

- During 1957, 37,500 postal drivers earned individual National Safety Council Safe Driver Awards for 1 to 27 years of safe driving.

Cub Pack 4 Wins Top Contest Award

Cub Pack 4 of the Fair Street Reformed Church was awarded first place in the annual district window display contest which was judged by the district commissioner's staff this week.

There were eight Cub Packs in the competition, each placing materials they used and items they made regarding a specific theme in a store window, arranging them so as to attract public interest. Items that scoring was rated on were craft work, attractiveness, lighting, and participation.

The theme of Pack 4 was the Alcan Highway and is displayed at the showroom formerly occupied by the Nash Sales Dept., North Front Street. They earned 93 out of a possible 100 points.

Second place was won by Pack 19, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1386. The display is located in the Montgomery Ward window, North Front Street, and it received 88.5 points. The Alaska theme was also followed by Pack 13, P-TA School 7 which used a window of O'Reilly's on central Broadway. Pack 13 placed third with a point total of 88.4.

Other Units

Pack 12, Old Dutch Church earned 85 points for display at Shapiro's Paint Store, North Front Street, theme, Circus Days. Pack 7 had a theme Six Sure Steps to Leadership at Van's Appliances, Albany Avenue Extension and had 83 points. Pack 7 is sponsored by St. John's Church.

At the Port Ewen Town Hall Pack 26 of the Port Ewen School Association the theme of Keep America Beautiful was depicted. The display earned 81 points. Pack 5, Jewish Community Center, had its craft work exhibited at the Sav-On Store, Central Broadway, with the theme Apple Blossom Time in the Hudson Valley. They were judged 78 points. Pack 20 of the Parent's Club of the Hurley School earned 52 points. Their theme was New Horizons for Cubs and was shown at the Hurley Gulf Station.

Pack 16 of the Marbletown Reformed Church had a display depicting the Homesteader theme but was not in the competition. Their exhibit is at the High Falls Hardware Store.

The Commissioner's Staff commented that there was evidence of lots of work on the displays. Prizes and ribbons will be awarded at this month's District Roundtable of the BSA to be held Monday, 7:45 p. m. at the Old Dutch Church, Wall Street.

Leave Margin When Cutting Boards

If you always find that board lengths cut for precision wood-working projects are undersize, here's a suggestion:

When using your power saw, remember that cutting through the scribe mark that has been drawn to exact measure will leave you with a piece shorter than your requirement. Avoid this by cutting alongside the scribe mark on the "unwanted" side of the board and not through the mark.

OLDER BRIDESMAID OUT OF PLACE

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I are both in our early forties. He has a brother in the early twenties who is going to be married soon and my husband has been asked to be his best man. His bride-to-be has asked me to be a bridesmaid. I appreciate her asking but I feel the age difference between me and her other young friends who will be bridesmaids is too great and I will certainly feel out of place. Could I possibly refuse to take part without hurting her feelings?

Answer: I understand your feelings perfectly and it would not be wrong to explain to the bride-to-be that you appreciate her wanting you as one of her attendants but that you would feel very much out of place with her young friends.

Callers at Funeral Home

Dear Mrs. Post: It is customary here to keep a register at a funeral home so callers may sign their names and the family be given the record of who came. What shall be done about such names? Is it necessary that they be thanked for their "visit"?

Answer: Nothing need be done about them. They are merely kept so that the family can know the names of those who came to show their friendship and sympathy.

An Aunt Gives a Shower

Dear Mrs. Post: My favorite niece is going to be married shortly and my daughter and I would like to give a shower for her. A friend of mine tells me that it would not be proper for me to give such a party. I know it is not considered correct for a member of her immediate family, but is an aunt considered immediate family?

Answer: If no other showers are given for her, you probably would not be criticized. But if other showers are being given this one by a relative would seem too many.

Many readers have inquired about engraved wedding forms for a widow or a divorcee. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, leaflet E-9, "Engraved Wedding Forms for a Widow or a Divorcee" explains. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Star Athlete Is Given 30 Years For Killing Girl

WINDSOR, N. C. (AP)—Jan Rivers Hackett, star high school athlete and student leader, was sentenced Friday to 30 years in prison for slaying a pretty classmate.

The handsome, 17-year-old Hackett, football and basketball player at Ahoskie High School, received the maximum penalty for second degree murder in the death of 16-year-old Delores Newson.

The youth, son of a state highway patrol sergeant, pleaded guilty Thursday of second degree murder. When arraigned Monday, Hackett had pleaded temporary insanity in the Feb. 12 slaying. Judge Chester Norris said if Hackett "did not have the capacity to know right from wrong when he destroyed this life, for his own sake and the sake of society he should be put away. If he had the ability to know right from wrong, this has been the worst case of murder I have ever tried."

Six Children Die In Phoenix Fire

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Six children, trapped in a ramshackle wooden frame apartment, died Friday night in a fire in South Phoenix.

The children, ranging in age from 5 months to 6 years, were Negro.

Another child, Alfred John Stafford, 9, escaped.

The six children had been left in the Stafford boy's care by their mothers, Mrs. Betty Lou Warrick and Mrs. Freddie Mae Williams.

Sheriff's Sgt. Buck Stockton identified the dead as:

Leonard Joe Cleveland, 6; Roy Warrick, 3; Rickie Joe Warrick, 2; Wanda Warrick, 5 months; Larry Williams, 3, and Aaron Williams, 1.

Stockton quoted the Stafford boy as saying he lit a kerosene lantern before the children went to bed and awakened to find the lantern tipped over and the bedroom afire.

Repulsed by Flames

He ran from the flames, the boy said, and then came back and tried to rescue the sleeping children. He said he was repulsed by the flames.

The Volunteer Fire Department limited the blaze to that one apartment, one of eight in the building. Firemen said the children's bodies were huddled in one corner of the bedroom.

The two mothers returned home to find the firemen at the scene. They fell into uncontrollable weeping and were unable to explain why they had been absent or to explain the children's relationship.

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices of some copper tubes have been cut again by Revere Copper and Brass Inc.

The company announced Friday that its latest reductions, averaging close to 10 per cent, would be effective Monday. A week ago, another 10 per cent cut was announced.

World Briefs

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle today decided to break his silence for the second time during France's crisis over Algeria. He scheduled a news conference Monday.

The general announced two days ago he was ready to take power if necessary.

VIETNAM, Laos (AP)—Election returns from rural areas today continued to show Parliamentary election victories for the Leftist Neo Lao Haksat Party, successors to the pro-communist Pathet Lao rebels.

The party picked up three more seats in Luang Prabang Province to boost its total to eight. It may win one more when final returns come in from all 21 contests in the May 4 balloting.

Although nine seats represent only a small segment of Laos' 60-member Parliament, the good showing by Neo Lao is expected to give it an important voice in the politics of this tiny country on the border of Red China.

WARSZAWA (AP)—Bad weather continued to plague central Poland Friday night. Violent winds hit the Rawia Mazowiecka district, seriously injuring 15 persons and destroying 18 houses. Nearly 100 buildings were damaged.

The latest storm came as the central area was recovered from a tornado which killed at least three persons Thursday and injured scores. Damage estimates were placed at six million dollars.

Violent electrical storms struck the rest of the country Friday night, crippling railroad communications and damaging crops.

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles is expected by reliable sources to visit Brazil in late July and President Juscelino Kubitschek says the nation will welcome him "with special pleasure."

Dulles probably will confer with Brazilian leaders on U.S. foreign policy and discuss communist penetration in Latin America, informants said.

The present-day Indians say their ancestors were cheated of adequate compensation by threats of force and by distribution of rum and cheap presents.

The tract stretches along the Pennsylvania line from Lake Erie to a point on the New York line above Towanda, Pa.

A settlement in favor of the Indians could bring in millions of dollars.

The U. S. Justice Department says the government is not liable because negotiations were carried on by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNSEL FOR THE DESCENDANTS TRY FOR 1784 CLAIM

WASHINGTON (AP)—Descendants of 18th century Indian tribes say their ancestors were fleeced out of land in northwestern Pennsylvania and they want to collect.

Counsel for the descendants, who are scattered over New York State, Wisconsin and Oklahoma, presented their case this week to the Indian Claims Commission.

The claim dates back to a 1784 peace treaty that the United States signed with the Six Nation Confederacy. Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania were on hand at the time to purchase a vast tract of land from the tribes.

The present-day Indians say their ancestors were cheated of adequate compensation by threats of force and by distribution of rum and cheap presents.

OLCOTT, N. Y. (AP)—The body of seven-year-old Darrell Russell, who drowned Thursday night in a creek near here, was found Friday in a skin diver.

The diver recovered the body about 50 feet from where Darrell disappeared after he jumped from a rowboat to swim ashore.

Darrell was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell of Olcott.

Don Carter Takes Lead in Empire State Open Bowling Tourney

National Champ Cracks 1667, Hits 297; Welu Takes Over Second Spot

By TONY CORAPI
Freeman Sports Staff

Don Carter, probably the greatest bowler of all-time, gave an exhibition at Schade's Bowling Academy, Albany, last night that fans will never forget.

The center of attraction in the final shift of the opening round of the Empire State Open tournament, he crashed a seven game score of 1667, including a 297 game, to take the lead held most of the day by two Albany keglers, "Punk" Limmer and Skip Vgars.

John Ferraro, one of the three Kingston entries in the $10,000 plus spectacular, finished among the first 28 of the 84-man field with a respectable tabulation of 1429.

Tough Conditions

Jack Ferraro and Jerry Oster, late entries in the classic didn't fair too well under some of the most difficult conditions experienced by even the top professional stars. The lanes were as stiff as a board. It forced the hook bowler to use different tactics to cope with the situation.

The lanes were sprayed and buffed before each shift. This was to make general overall conditions even for all the bowlers. It hampered some of the top names, but the elements didn't seem to phase Limmer and Vgars in the early stages.

The Albany keglers held a slight advantage since they were aware of the tournament conditions and had time to work out some of the wrinkles.

Finished Strong

Ferraro started off weakly, but with a little luck could have had a big 1500 score. In his last four games, he hit 197, 234, 202 and 253 after recording singles of 180, 181, 182.

A split on a good pocket hit in the fourth frame of the last game spoiled John's bid for a perfect game. He followed it with a six-timer.

The bowlers will swing into the second round today and to-night. Fifty-six of them will qualify for the semi-finals, after which half of them will be eliminated with the finals slated in two shifts at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

The only word to describe Carter is fabulous. The Budweiser star, with his most unique approach and delivery, was the attraction from the moment he stepped in the 14-lane house. In his first three practice balls, the national champion, got no where near the pocket.

Perfect Bowler

But on his first ball as the final round of the day was whistled into action by Bert Schade, Carter had a perfect pocket hit and left a 5-7 split which he failed to pick up.

After that, the world's finest bowler, went to work. He ached a capacity house of more than 1,000 persons which got so used to seeing strikes, they clapped vociferously even when Carter didn't get one.

He fired 11 in a row in the third game. The audience sensing a perfect game from the fifth frame on, increased its applause tempo with each strike. After the scorekeeper had X'd the 10th one, even some of the accompanying keglers paused to see him put the 11th one in the pocket for the works. Showing no signs of any strain, he approached the line in his usual manner.

Eyes on Carter

By now the bowlers had stopped and all the eyes in the place were peeled on the gawking figure. He went through his set pattern and then tip-toed as if he were stepping on a nail-studded mat to the line. The shot lacked the accuracy he had shown in his earlier thrusts. It didn't carry as the ball hit the 1-3 pocket light and left the 2-4 fence.

While Carter was having a great night, his national doubles partner, Tom Hennessy was finding the going rough and finished with 1381. He'll have to crash a good score today to qualify.

Welu Second

Billy Welu, a real picture bowler, worked himself into second place with a score of 1595 on games of 193-228-227-201-258-256-232. He trails Carter by 24.

Chavez Ravine Fate to Voters

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Political figures have had their turns at bat. Now it is up to the voters to decide whether the Los Angeles Dodgers get Chavez Ravine for a stadium site.

A state legislative committee wound up a hearing Friday on the proposed contract between the city and the Dodgers for the site. The proposal will be submitted for approval at the June 3 election.

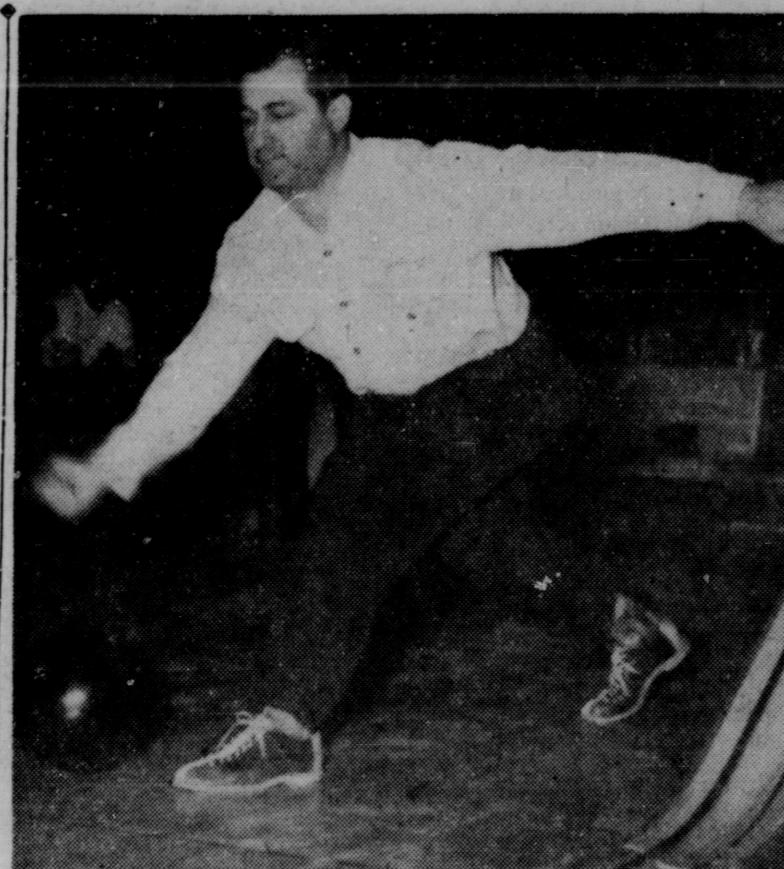

Opponents of the contract, including some members of the city council, contend it is one-sided in favor of the Dodgers. Under its terms, the Dodgers would trade Wrigley Field for the 300-acre plus city-owned ravine about a mile from the downtown section.

Dick Hoover of Arkon, opened in the first shift and fired a 1452 total. Buzz Fazio, St. Louis shot a 1440 and Steve Nagy 1403.

Lou "Wrong Foot" Campi found the conditions quite difficult and finished with 1389. He ran into three straight 8-10 splits and others during his seven games.

Knothole League To Drill Monday

Scheffel Voted Cage MVP Award

Ronnie Scheffel, Byrne Chevies basketball ace, has been elected the Hudson Valley League's most valuable player. He received the award over Ted Dwyer of Pine Plains and Chuck Ropes of Fishkill.

Eagles Trounce Jays, 17-7 in Jaycee League

The Eagles trounced the Jays, 17-7 in a Jaycee Little League game yesterday at Forsyth Park, behind the pitching of Bruce Terwilliger.

The Jays outhit the winners, 13-12, but played loose ball in the field. The Eagles scored six in the first and added five more in the second and third frames.

Terwilliger led his team's 12-hit attack with three safeties. Mike Burns and Paul Kenek each had three hits for the Jays.

A doubleheader will be played tomorrow starting at 3:30 p.m.

Willie Can't Do It Alone

CHICAGO (AP) — San Francisco's Willie Mays just can't win all by himself.

The fabulous Mays Friday hit a three-run homer to launch an apparent Giant victory over the Chicago Cubs. Then he cut loose with a ninth-inning throw from center field which should have prevented an eventual 6-5 Cub triumph.

Rookie catcher Bob Schmidt muffed Mays' throw to the plate and the Cubs got their winning run as successful pinch-hitter Bobby Adams bowed across from second on walls single.

Mays' 10th homer came in a five-run Giant sixth and gave him a share of the National League RBI lead with teammate Daryl Spencer at 28. It also kept him in front as league runs scored leadenter with 29.

Willie accepted the Giant setback in his usual calm fashion. He said his 400-foot homer smash on Taylor Phillips' first pitch was "just about as good a clout as I've had this season."

Mays said nothing about his throw which Schmidt failed to snag although it would have had the runner by about five feet.

Major Leaguers Help Honor Hoy On 96th Birthday

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bumby Hoy, who started playing major league baseball here before the turn of the century, got some help Friday in celebrating his 96th birthday.

Hoy, believed to be the oldest living ex-major leaguer, was honored by the Ballplayers of Yesterday at Crosley Field ceremonies before start of the Cincinnati-Milwaukee game Friday night. Hoy received a plaque and telegrams from Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, the presidents of the two major leagues, Ty Cobb and others.

Opponents of the contract, including some members of the city council, contend it is one-sided in favor of the Dodgers. Under its terms, the Dodgers would trade Wrigley Field for the 300-acre plus city-owned ravine about a mile from the downtown section.

Mayor Norris Poulsen, long a leader in the fight to bring major league baseball to Los Angeles, was asked if he thought the Dodgers would leave if the voters turned down the contract.

"I'm sure they will," he told the committee. "And we'll be the laughing stock of the United States."

Tim Tam 6-5 Choice for $100,000 Preakness

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The $100,000 added Preakness at Pimlico, with a dozen 3-year olds clashing at a mile and three-sixteenths, is the big race today. But there is plenty of gold ready for distribution at the nation's other major horse racing plants.

Calumet Farm's Tim Tam, winner of the Kentucky Derby and 9 of his 11 starts this year, is the 6-5 choice for the Preakness, scheduled to start at 4:45 p.m.

The race will be nationally televised by CBS from 4:30 to 5 p.m.

Jammed Elevator Shows Hospital Could Use Funds

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—Deficit-ridden City Hospital put on an unscheduled show Friday for Broome County supervisors on an inspection.

The party boarded an elevator at the third floor and it promptly sank out of control to the basement. The doors jammed.

After about seven minutes, Mayor John J. Burns freed the group by dismantling a door. No one was injured.

The supervisors were on an inspection to determine whether the county should take the hospital over as the city has asked. The city bases its request on the ground that many of the patients are from the county communities other than Binghamton.

Miss Joan Filkins is a member of the mixed chorus of IBM that presents a concert tonight in the George Washington School, Kingston. The accompanist is George Litts.

Miss Emily Lent attended the district library conference meeting Wednesday afternoon in Ellenville.

Defense Department officials and military leaders planned speeches at scores of cities—all tied to the official theme "power for peace." At U.S. military centers abroad, the official theme and slogan is "partners for peace."

The talks were said to have been aimed at a waterfront agreement to end jurisdictional disputes between the AFL-CIO's Seafarers International Union and the ILA. Under the reported proposal, the ILA would stop raiding the SIU at Great Lakes and Puerto Rican ports and the SIU would not try to organize in the ILA's East Coast territory.

The ILA was expelled from the old AFL in 1953 on charges it was dominated by racketeers. The Teamsters were ousted from the AFL-CIO last year on corruption charges.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON
BIGGER AND WORSE GOVERNMENT

Our "Regulators" are getting bigger and busier. The 82nd Congress enacted 593 public laws, not counting thousands of private bills; the 83rd Congress, 781; but the big jump came when the 84th got real busy and found reasons to enact 1,028 more laws. Now the 85th is on the job. How can anybody keep up with all these do's and don'ts?

Senator Carl Hayden, of Arizona, has established an all-time record. He has been in Congress since 1912. When Arizona became a State, Judge Hayden was elected to the Senate, and he has remained there for 47 years.

Today, men in industry are turned out to pasture at the age of 65, but not so in public office.

I see no law to cut taxes. Hungry vampires demand more blood.

Victor Riesel reports that AFL-CIO are organizing to elect political candidates who are bidding.

Laws are being made faster than the increase in population. Most of them affect and curb the activities of business, which has been charged with "selfishness and lust for power." But there are no laws to stop the political usurpation of power, or to curb the labor racketeers. Where are the morals in Government?

According to the Tax Foundation, for every billion which could be cut from the Federal budget, the average family of four could keep 19 $s, which are now being sent hotfoot to Washington.

Rosendale Clean Up Week Begins Monday

Clean Up Week for the Village of Rosendale will be observed beginning Monday, May 19.

Refuse and garbage collections will be made Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The special week was set aside by the village board as a spring project.

A spokesman for the board urged village residents to observe the week as "a good opportunity to clear residences and property of fire hazards."

No Successor Is Named by GOP For Couderd Seat

NEW YORK (AP) — Republican leaders were unable to reach agreement Friday on an organization candidate to succeed Frederic R. Couderd Jr. in Manhattan's "Silk Stocking" congressional district.

An effort to pick a replacement for Couderd, who announced on Thursday he would not seek a seventh term, broke down over a clash between supporters of Elliott Goodwin and John W. Lindsay.

Meet Next Week

Manhattan GOP Leader Thomas J. Curran had said he expected the party chiefs to make their decision Friday on the organization candidate.

A decision on a designee was postponed until next Friday when the Assembly district leaders with in the congressional district—the 17th—will meet.

Eight of the nine district leaders involved met Friday at Republican County Committee headquarters.

Goodwin is president of the Ninth Assembly District Republican Club. Lindsay is a former president of the New York Young Republican Club. An insurgent candidate, he has vowed a primary fight for the nomination.

May Return to Practice

A decision also was postponed until next Friday on a Republican candidate to oppose Rep. Alfred E. Santangelo, Democratic and Liberal incumbent in the 18th Congressional District.

Couderd has said he expects to resume full-time law practice.

Hotel Employees Strike at Troy

TROY, N. Y. (AP) — Union employees of the 165-room Hendrick Hudson Hotel were on strike today in a dispute with the new management.

The hotel is booked to capacity for Parents Weekend at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

The strike began Friday night.

Pickets were posted at entrances. Local 583 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union said about 100 workers left their jobs. The hotel sets the number at 86.

The union said the new owners, represented by I. Harrison Levy of Minneapolis, had violated its contract by disregarding seniority in making layoffs and by assigning new duties to workers in addition to those required previously.

Management replied that it knew of no contract violation nor had any been brought to its attention. Management said the strike was a contract violation.

The investigation will be continued by the detective division.

Pharmacy Reports Theft of Articles

Theft of three alarm clocks, three wrist watches and five eight-ounce jars of mixed nuts from the Blackstone Pharmacy, 642 Broadway, was reported to local police today.

John J. Palasi, owner of the store, told police the burglary apparently occurred some time between 9:30 p. m. Friday and 7 a. m. today.

Officers Charles McCullough and James Amato, who investigated, said entry was gained by removing the molding from the glass in a rear door and prying the latch from the inside of the door.

The investigation will be continued by the detective division.

How Much Automobile Liability Insurance Should You Carry?

The giant California redwood tree is the world's oldest living thing. Some redwoods actually live 4,000 years.

HERE'S A GOOD RULE:

Add up the cost of your car, securities, business interests and other property. Say this runs in the neighborhood of $35,000. The proper amount of insurance to carry would be $50-100,000 with $25-50,000 considered a bare minimum

by prudent people. Extra protection costs so little you should not be without it. Call us.

Waterways Group Asks Ike Veto of Bill Be Overridden

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Rivers and Harbors Congress wants Congress to override President Eisenhower's recent veto of the 1½-billion-dollar water projects authorization bill.

The organization, devoted to promotion of water development projects, expressed this view Friday in resolutions adopted at the final session of its annual convention.

The group also criticized the administration's policy of not permitting new starts on water projects.

The congress said a substantial number of such projects should be started each year.

In a letter read to the group by an aide, Eisenhower urged that all types of public construction be kept in balance "according to their relative urgencies."

The organization said it was disturbed by Eisenhower's veto. The resulting stalemate between the President and Congress is a deterrent to orderly development of water resources, the group said.

In other action, the congress said that work should be started on the Buttermilk Channel dredging project in the New York City area, that a survey report should be expedited on the Buttermilk Channel, and that a survey should be started on the proposed Hudson-Champlain inland waterway.
